

Terms and Conditions for the Digital Library

WHS Regional Meeting

The Digital Library of the WHS Regional Meeting serves as a valuable knowledge hub, showcasing research papers, case studies, innovations, insights, and all other knowledge products that contribute to scaling access and ensuring health equity worldwide. By submitting content, users agree to abide by the terms and conditions outlined herein. These terms ensure compliance with intellectual property rights, ethical standards, and the WHS Regional Meeting's mission while fostering scientific discourse.

By submitting a document, users acknowledge and agree to these Terms and Conditions, ensuring that the Digital Library remains a credible, ethical, and informative resource for all. All documents will be reviewed for compliance before publication.

1. The organizing committee of the WHS Regional Meeting reserves the right to request modifications or reject submissions that do not adhere to these terms.
2. Users must own or have the appropriate permissions to submit content.
3. All third-party content must be properly cited and referenced.
4. Submissions must not infringe upon any copyright, trademark, or intellectual property rights.
5. Authors retain copyright but grant the WHS Regional Meeting a non-exclusive right to share, archive, and distribute the document within the Digital Library.
6. Documents must respect cultural, religious, and social sensitivities.
7. Content must be free from hate speech, discrimination, misinformation, or incitement to violence.
8. Scientific discussions on contentious topics must be balanced, evidence-based, and presented within an academic framework.
9. Conflicts of interest or potential biases must be disclosed.
10. Content must not be provocative but rather foster constructive dialogue.
11. Refrain from making politically charged statements that could overshadow the scientific and health-related nature of the documents.
12. The WHS Regional Meeting reserves the right to flag or reject provocative or divisive content.
13. Any personal or sensitive data must be anonymized or have explicit consent for disclosure.
14. Research involving human subjects must comply with ethical research guidelines and applicable regulations.
15. Authors may update their documents post-publication with approval from the WHS Digital Library review panel.
16. Any corrections or updates based on new findings must be clearly indicated.
17. The WHS Regional Meeting is not responsible for the accuracy, reliability, or completeness of the submitted content.

18. The WHS Regional Meeting is not liable for any legal consequences arising from the publication or use of content in the Digital Library.
19. Each document must include a relevant, high-quality thumbnail image.
20. Thumbnail images must not contain offensive, misleading, or promotional content.

The WHS Regional Meeting 2025 reserves the right to modify these terms at any time, and continued use of the Digital Library constitutes acceptance of any revised terms.
